Self-Realization Fellowship is a nonprofit religious organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service and the California Franchise Tax Board as a public charity. Accordingly, contributions to the International Headquarters from residents of the U.S.A. are deductible to the maximum extent permitted by law for income tax and estate tax purposes. Deductible donations can be made through monetary gifts or property, such as stocks or real estate, and under special arrangements through trusts. Deductible bequests can be made by naming the organization as a beneficiary in, among other things, a will, a trust, or an insurance policy.
